20TH June 2010

OJU Spring Kata Course September 15th -18th 2010

OJU KATA Championships September 19th 2010

Olympic Park Sydney Australia

All OJU member countries should make the most of this opportunity and send Judoka for Instruction, Examiners and Kata Judges for certification

There will be a four day Kata Course held with the purpose of teaching the Kodokan Standard Kata. This course will be supported by the Kodokan through Daigo-sensei who has agreed to send THREE Kata Sensei from the Kodokan.

The Kata to be taught will be;

Kime No Kata
Kodokan Goshin Jutsu No Kata
Katame No Kata
Nage No Kata
Ju No Kata

Desired outcomes;

- Issuing of OJU competency certificates for Participants
- Issuing of JFA Examiners certificates. Certify, State, National, and Continental Judges.
- 2010 OJU Kata Championship

Who should attend this course?

Restricted to: 1st Kyu

- All Kata enthusiasts who wish to learn more about Judo
- Kata competitors, who wish to compete for the OJU Championship
- From 1st Dan and above Kata Judges/Grade Examiners who wish to be certified in particular Kata. (examination is Dan specific to Kata, refer to specific criteria)

This is a must to up-date knowledge, skills and be certified as a Kata Judge and examiner. Final Evaluation at the OJU Championship Sunday September 19th 2010
